- Make Money Orders and Cashier's Checks Payable to THE NAVAJO NATION.

- Must be eligible to hunt on the Navajo Nation.
- ATV's are not allowed during the hunts, except by special permit. See Navajo Nation Hunting and Trapping Regulations.
- A big game hunter may take COYOTES and WILD DOGS during any big game hunt for which they possess a permit in the authorized unit(s) until their big game permit is filled. Only weapons legal for that hunt may be used. A small game permit is not required.
- Any person 12 years of age or older, Navajo or non-Navajo, may hunt big game on the Navajo Nation when properly permitted. A person under the age of 12 may apply for big game hunts only if he/she turns 12 years of age before the beginning of the hunt(s) they are applying for and has successfully completed a Hunters Education Class.
- No one born after January 1, 1970, may take any game without having satisfactorily completed a certified Hunter Education Course. For those people born after January 1, 1970, proof of Hunter Education Certification (card) must be in their possession when taking game animals.
- NO REFUNDS will be made on drawn or issued permits. PERMITS CANNOT BE TRANSFERRED.
- A person may not use any aircraft to locate or take any wildlife.
- It is unlawful to possess a firearm with live ammunition in the firing chamber in or on any motor vehicle.
- It is illegal for non-Navajos to accompany non-Navajo big game hunters in the field, including during scouting. Exceptions are only made for immediate family members. If encountered with a professional, non-Navajo guide, the permit will be confiscated and revoked. Immediate family members are guests on the Navajo Nation and can be asked to leave if warranted.
- HUNTER ORANGE REQUIREMENT: Any person (including hunt guides or others accompanying the hunter) in the act of taking big game is required to wear a minimum of 300 square inches of daylight fluorescent orange during any hunt allowing the use of any center-fire firearm.
- It is unlawful for anyone to intentionally interfere with a lawful hunt, including illegally denying access to trust lands.
